

INDOCHINA

Communist China's Peoples Daily

on 2 September: "Only by applying the principle of settling international disputes through negotiation, can France find a solution to the Indochina question."

Later, more belligerent tone -

Peiping Radio - 13 September 1953 -

"The will of millions of people demanding peace has become a powerful and effective force. This force has compelled the American aggressors to seek an armistice in Korea and will be able to force the militarists in Vietnam to lay down their arms."
